Guide to Understanding The 1099-MISC

FOR CLIENT RELEASE

To provide you with the best information on how to report your Supplemental Unemployment Benefit, please review the following:

First, why did you receive the 1099-MISC?

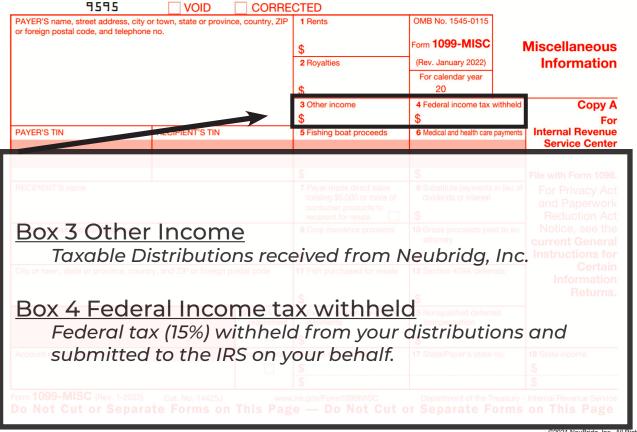

You received an IRS Form 1099-MISC from NeuBridg, Inc. for distributions paid to you from the NeuBridg Supplemental Unemployment Compensation Benefit Plan and Trust. To qualify for this distribution, you qualified for state unemployment and experienced either a shortage of hours or were laid off (temporary or permanently) during the preceding tax year.

To ensure that you report the income and taxes correctly on your personal tax returns, please inform your tax professional of the following:

- 1. The 1099-MISC is not subject to self-employment tax;
- 2. The 1099-MISC is only subject to state and federal income tax;
- 3. 15% Federal Tax was already withheld and submitted to the IRS by NeuBridg (Box 4) of your 1099-MISC;
- 4. The distribution you received should be treated like your state unemployment benefits.

The 1099-MISC you received from NeuBridg was for the Supplemental Unemployment Benefit Plan and Trust distributions and federal taxes paid for tax year 2021.

This information was obtained from the IRS Website on 12/23/2021 (NeuBridg is not offering any tax advise. Forms are for illustration purposes ONLY Employees are encouraged to consult their financial advisor(s) 1099-MISC is to be reported on Schedule 1, line 8

TURBOTAX™ and Other Tax Software Programs

As in years past, many of our clients use either TurboTax[™] or one of the other popular tax programs. The recurring common question we receive is "How do I enter the NeuBridg 1099-MISC without it being 1) placed on a separate schedule or 2) self-employment tax being calculated?"

Based upon the information we have been able to obtain through public Internet sources, it appears that these programs do not allow for a straight forward approach to entering the 1099-MISC. In discussions with our tax professionals, it appears that the "off the shelf" or "personal home based" software solutions are not sophisticated enough to accommodate the 1099-MISC in the correct manner. Furthermore, the download from H&R Block (on-line) differs from the in store version that their tax professionals use. The in store version we are told allows for recording of the 1099-MISC correctly. Be advised, NeuBridg reported to the IRS the distribution received in Box 3 (Other income) and the federal tax withheld in Box 4 which is in compliance with IRS reporting guidelines.

For TurboTaxTM Users. It appears that one method to record the 1099-MISC income would be to record the earnings as you would prize money awards or lawsuit settlements. Utilizing this method appears to allow you to enter the distribution as other income (Box 3) and the federal tax (Box 4) that was submitted on your behalf to the IRS. It is our understanding that in order to report the distribution correctly, you must utilize Schedule 1, and enter the distribution on Line 8 of the 1040.
